

Hillary Boyce Doriguzzi, Owner of ProHill Services LLC

Mrs. Hillary Boyce Doriguzzi is the owner of ProHill Services LLC, a small 100% woman and veteran owned government contracting company that provides professional services to U.S. military programs. Since ProHill Services' inception, in Nov 2015, we have been blessed to win several prime competitive contracts for the U.S. Army, Navy, Air National Guard and Military Entrance Processing (MEPS) Command. Mrs. Boyce Doriguzzi has first-hand experience of over 15 years in business development and contract management within the Department of Defense (DoD) market and also served as member of the U.S. Army National Guard and active duty in the U.S. Army. She served in the Army as an Engineer and Personnel Administration Supervisor. She served as a Vice President of another small business before deciding to start ProHill Services LLC.

She is a seasoned professional in the management of government contracts and has many years of personal work experience in multiple Military Personnel Divisions in both CONUS and OCONUS (Germany and South Korea) environments. Ms. Doriguzzi was formerly the Army Retirement Services Officer and Transition Center Manager where she has performed thousands of Survivor Benefits Plan counseling to survivors and service members. She managed the Military Personnel Division at Camp Humphreys, South Korea. Mrs. Hillary Boyce Doriguzzi also served as the Operations Manager for the Joint Personal Effects Depot (JPED), the only organization of its kind in the Department of Defense (DoD) established during a time of war to advance the care and handling of personal effects of those killed, missing or wounded in action. Additionally, Mrs. Boyce Doriguzzi has managed the executive correspondence section of the Casualty Support Services at Fort Knox Army Medical Evaluations Boards Processing at Walter Reed, DC, Fort Sam Houston, TX and Fort Lewis, WA. Since that time, Ms. Doriguzzi has managed multiple contracts operations with a focus on administration, family support, IT, and logistics focused services.

She attended college at University of Maryland's Europe and Asia divisions while living and working overseas. She volunteers to serve her community while serving on the Board of Directors with the Women in Defense - Greater Hampton Roads (WIDGHR) and as the executive chair for the Young Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association (AFCEA) Hampton Roads chapter. Mrs. Boyce Doriguzzi resides in Virginia Beach, Virginia and is a proud mother of three boys and a wife to a U.S. Marine veteran.
